Based on a referral base from past clients, I have built up a business as one of the top residential real estate agents in Chicago. With regards to the services and attention I provide, I always strive to exceed the expectations set by our industry and my clients. I believe in creating strong working relationships to help my clients achieve their goals—and continuing that relationship after the goal is met. Honest advice, open dialogue, and respectful consideration are the key principles I follow when interacting with my clients. Those principles are combined with experience-based knowledge, integrity and a sincere passion for what I do.

COMPANY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Nine years of experience selling residential real estate in Chicago with over $170 million in sales—sales in excess of $30 million in each of the two previous years.
- The number 1 top-producing city agent for total number of closed sales with Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage for 2005 and number 3 top-producing city agent for total number of closed sales with Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage for 2004.
- Created a market-focused website for displaying listings and client information. In addition to client resources, it includes floorplans and brochures, as well as in-depth information for each of my listings.
